What to do to Win Your Ex-wife Back

If you're still not divorced from your wife but you both aren't living under the same roof, it is at least, a better situation, than the worst case scenario of you being already divorced. If divorce is still in process, or is about to begin, it is time to take things in your own hands to get ex back. If you have realized that the decision to end the relationship (either by you, or by her, or by both) was not justified, it is time to act upon it and inform her. Drop the Male Ego

Your heart wants her back badly. You miss her. The void is there, deepening everyday but you can't express it even to yourself. It is nothing but male ego dominating your mind. It is forcing you to focus on her mistakes, her wrongdoings, her behavior whereas at this juncture, when it is now or never, you got to shift your focus from 'her' to 'you'. There is not enough time at your disposal. Before it is too late, go and seek sincere apology. Drop the ego. Let it go.

Communicate the Problem

Communication will be your main weapon while you're contemplating for a sorry. May be it wasn't just your mistake and it never is; it always takes two to tango, or probably three. But if it was your mistake, that includes but is not limited to infidelity, lack of love, extramarital affairs, jealousy, unmet needs, wants or other traits of bad relationships, then seeking a sincere apology is the only way out. You won't have to feel shy about it. Melting your ego in the warmth of her love will make you feel more loved, accepted and appreciated. Don't think your value or respect will be lowered in her eyes. These are the very things polluting any relationship. Explain to her the problem and how everything was misunderstood and miscalculated by both of you. So this is my second crucial advice on relationships for husbands willing to know how to win your ex-wife back.
